WEST GLACIER, MONT. – With February rapidly coming to a close, park managers at Glacier National Park are working on final details to begin spring opening throughout the park within the next few months. In an effort to provide advance details and general information to park neighbors and the general public, the NPS will host a meeting on Thursday, February 27 from 5 to 7 p.m. at the West Glacier Community Building.

Presentations and discussion will focus on procedures, schedules and staffing as well as environmental factors affecting spring opening at Glacier. The agenda will include introductions followed by a showing of the video production "Road Out of Snow," a briefing on the park's spring opening plan by Chief of Facility Management John Kilpatrick and then be followed by a questions and answer session.
